

16th LATIN AMERICAN & SPANISH FILM WEEK

September 23 – 27, 2026

Presented by the Hispanic Film Society of Victoria & UVic Hispanic Studies

All films screen at Cinecenta (UVic) with English subtitles.

FILM SCHEDULE

¡Las Sandinistas! (Nicaragua)	Wednesday, Sept 23 @ 7:00 PM	A powerful look at the women who fought in Nicaragua's Sandinista revolution.
Un cabo suelto (Argentina/Uruguay)	Thursday, Sept 24 @ 7:00 PM	A deadpan romantic comedy tracking an Argentinian policeman rebuilding his life in Uruguay.
Marco, la verdad inventada (Spain)	Friday, Sept 25 @ 7:00 PM	A thrilling drama about a man who fabricated a complex lie about surviving a Nazi concentration camp.
Reinas (Peru)	Saturday, Sept 26 @ 7:00 PM	Set during Lima's 1992 chaos, following a family dealing with conflicting emotions before leaving.
La Salsa Vive (Colombia)	Sunday, Sept 27 @ 5:00 PM	An electrifying documentary exploring the cultural history and legacy of salsa music.

SPECIAL LIVE EVENT

A Night of Latin American Folk

When: Sunday, September 27 at 8:00 PM

Where: Phillip T. Young Recital Hall, UVic

Featuring: Mariachi sin Frontera, Cuban pianist Pablo Cárdenas, and Robin Layne & the Rhythm Makers.

Admission: Pay-What-You-Can ($12 - $25) / FREE for students with ID.

More details & trailers: hispfilmvic.ca | Tickets at Cinecenta